

The public interest will not be served by allowing monopolization of our media.